THE MANSELL PRIZE EVENT - MONDAY 5 JUNE 2017
1300 – 1900

The Medical Society of London will host The Mansell Prize Event on Monday 5 June 2017. This event will comprise 6 Neurology students presenting their research to a judging panel and a multi-disciplinary medical audience. A significant criteria for the award is the ability to ensure that the research is made understandable and relevant to the wider medical audience. They will all receive prizes, The first prize will be £1000, and the residue of a total prize fund of £2900 will be divided among the other presenters.

The Principal Guest, and Honorary Head Judge will be Professor Tom Solomon, Director, The Institute of Infection & Global Health, University of Liverpool. He will deliver the keynote Mansell Lecture:

Emerging brain infections, including Zika

We are writing to invite you to this event, which will be funded by the Mansell Bequest. It will be free for Fellows of The Medical Society and a charge of £5 will be made for guests, who are welcome. The Programme will be as follows:
