Dear Fellow,

The second Ordinary meeting of 2019 will be held at 8.00pm on 28th January when Professor Christopher Kennard PhD FRCP FMedSci will address the Society on

O'FROGS AN' MEN....I BACKWARD CAST MY E'E

Prof Kennard is Emeritus Professor of Neurology at Oxford University and a Fellow at Brasenose College. He qualified at Charing Cross Hospital and did his PhD at the MRC's National Institute of Medical Research. After completing his training in neurology, he became Consultant Neurologist at Whitechapel, and then moved back to Charing Cross, as Professor of Clinical Neurology. He was Imperial College Head of the Division of Clinical Neurosciences and Psychological Medicine and subsequently Deputy Principal of the Faculty of Medicine. He then moved to Oxford where he was Head of the Nuffield Department of Clinical Neurosciences and later Head of the Medical Sciences Division. He has edited the Journal of Neurology, Neurosurgery and Psychiatry, and chaired the UK's MRC Neuroscience and Mental Health Board. He was President of the Association of British Neurologists (and ABN Medallist in 2018) and of the European Neuroophthalmology Society His research has covered many aspects of vision, oculomotor control and cognition.

I will talk about the ups and downs of a long career in clinical neurology and the visual neurosciences, and how this all started with studies on the development of the visual pathways in the frog. The emphasis will be on clinical research and a number of recurring interests including the mechanisms of visuo-spatial neglect, blindsight, homonymous hemianopia and its therapy, functional specialisation in the visual and oculomotor brain and the study of eye movements in neurodegenerative diseases.

There will be a Buffet Supper at 6.45pm. The cost of the evening, to include the lecture and supper is £35 per person. If you wish to attend the supper please send your cheque to reach the Registrar at the above address by THURSDAY, 24th JANUARY 2019 accompanied by the attached slip or pay by Bacs and email to inform us you have done so. Please note that orders cannot be accepted for suppers after 12 noon on the Friday before a Monday meeting.
