Dear Fellow

The next meeting of the Society will be held on 8th April at Lettsom House when an unavoidable change to the advertised programme Dr Ron Daniels BEM MB ChB FRCA FFICM FRCPEd will speak on

CHANGING THE FACE OF SEPSIS:
TURNING A SYNDROMIC RESPONSE INTO A DISEASE

Ron Daniels is a Consultant in Critical Care at the University of Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust. He is the Chief Executive of the UK Sepsis Trust where he provides clinical advice to NHS England, the Department of Health and to the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, Royal College of Anaesthetists and Faculty of Intensive Care Medicine.

Antimicrobial resistance doesn't claim lives: untreatable infection as a consequence does. Discussing Sepsis as the final common pathway to death from most infectious diseases worldwide, and can be done to prevent avoidable harm from Sepsis whilst maintaining a responsible approach to AMR.

A Buffet Supper will precede the meeting at 6.45pm. The cost of the evening, to include the lecture and Supper will be £42 per person for Fellows and Guests If you wish to attend the supper please send your cheque to reach the Registrar at the above address by Thursday 4th April 2024 accompanied by the attached slip. Coffee and biscuits will be served after the lecture. Please note that we cannot usually accept orders for suppers after 12 noon on the Friday before a Monday meeting when we pass final numbers to the caterer. If you have booked and then do not attend, payment will still be required as the Society will be charged for your meal. If after Friday noon you decide you would like to attend, please telephone for a decision.

Yours faithfully,

Honorary Secretaries
